2014 SUMMER BIG APPLE GAMES

The Public Schools Athletic League, Big Apple Games Summer Program, is seeking energetic high school and college students to assist teachers in administration of the Big Apple Games throughout the 5 boroughs of New York City. The Big Apple Games are organized recreational activities during the summer months for NYC youth. Candidates must enjoy working with and being around young children. Selected candidates will serve as positive role models for participants and peers. Opportunities to teach an activity in which you are skilled or qualified will be available. Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Monitor students to ensure their safety and well-being.
- Follow program’s rules, policies and guidelines.
- Assist teachers in charge, support staff and peers with activities.

Preferred qualifications include:

- Ability to teach and lead various instructional activities.
- Interface with people on various levels.
- Work in a cooperative, team-oriented atmosphere.

The program runs from July 7, 2014 – August 7, 2014, Mondays – Thursdays with Special Education Pools on Fridays. Selected candidates must be able to commit to working throughout the program, be punctual and respectful. All are required to attend scheduled orientation sessions.

Please submit your resume and a reference letter to oss@schools.nyc.gov on or before May 9, 2014 to be considered. The reference letter may be from a teacher or community leader. Indicate on your resume whether you are a high school or college student and be sure to include an updated email address for correspondence. The salary for high school students is $7.25 /hour and college students are compensated at $9.76 / hour.
