

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Tony Volpone was named the third coach in Castleton history in March of 2014. He comes to Castleton after spending the past seven seasons at Endicott as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator. He was instrumental in transitioning the program from a three-win team in his first season to a perennial power in the New England region.

In his time at Endicott the offense broke many program records, broke or tied eleven NEFC records, recorded six All-America nominations, three ECAC All-Star selections, 31 All-Conference selections, four Academic All-Americans, two NEFC Rookie of the Year award-winners, and a NEFC and ECAC Player of the Year award-winner.

Prior to his appointment at Endicott, Volpone also coached at Nichols, Bridgewater (Va.), Norwich University, and Becker College.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

Our staff of college football coaches provide quality instruction on basic and advanced football fundamentals for all campers in a quality-controlled environment.

Campers will learn and practice fundamentals and techniques that will aid them in becoming a better football player. Further, camp staff will provide opportunities for character development, leadership growth, and positive sportsmanship.

CAMP DETAILS

Campers may choose to specialize within one position or they may select the opportunity to master multiple positions (offense, defense, special teams) during the course of camp.

- Offensive instruction will focus on ball handling/ ball security, passing and catching the football, blocking, and position specific footwork.
- Defensive instruction will focus on alignment/ assignment techniques, block disengagement, tackling, ball skills, and position specific footwork.
- Registration will be held in the Spartan Athletic Complex lobby 5:30-6:30 p.m. on July 11.

EXPOSURE

Several current Spartans were discovered at previous Spartans Football Camps. This is a great opportunity to learn from, and get to know the coaches and environment at Castleton State College.

All sessions held at Spartan Stadium, home of the Castleton Spartans.
