Procedures for Interscholastic Contests

In order to provide a safe and healthful environment for our athletes at our home games, we have the following regulations regarding home competitions.

- No visiting team spectators will be admitted into the Scholars' Academy with the exception of parents and faculty members, these parties will be admitted once proper identification is shown.
- The Beach 104th Street Entrance is to be used for both Entrance/Exit
- Team players and team managers (up to 3) will only be admitted into the building accompanied and identified by a coach.
- Visiting team coaches must accompany and supervise their student athletes to the gymnasium, the locker room and other areas at all times.
- No visiting cheerleaders or boosters will be admitted to any game.
- Team members are advised to bring all personal possessions with them after changing.
- Visiting team members are responsible to clean their area of water bottles, materials, etc.
- The coach must escort the entire team and managers out of the building at the conclusion of the game.
- Anyone who is found in a prohibited area will be escorted out of the building.
- Permitted areas during after school sports are limited to the 1st Floor Restrooms and Gymnasium
- Any player or spectator that fails to adhere to reasonable standards of behavior and good sportsmanship will be escorted out of the building. This includes the use of profanity, and berating of players, coaches, officials or other spectators.
- Players or spectators at the Scholars' Academy may not wear hats. Anyone wearing a hat or head covering will not be admitted (except religious observance).

School Building Rules must be followed at all times, such as;

- Athletes and Students
 1. No hats, hoods, bandanas, etc.
 2. No cellular phones or any other devices
 3. No outside food or drink, with the exception of water/Gatorade
 4. No gum chewing
 5. No foul language or horseplay
- Scholars' Students
 1. Must wear school ID card
