Entry Deadline Friday May 2, 2014

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The New York Junior Tennis and Learning first hosted the Mayors Cup All-Scholastic Tennis Championship in 1988. The tournament is the premier event for scholastic tennis players in New York City. Held at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center, the Mayors Cup has grown to become the second largest event to be held at this facility famed for the US Open. The Mayor's Cup has additionally earned the honors of being named the largest scholastic tennis event in the Nation. With a total of 11 different events and over 600 participants, the Mayors Cup All-Scholastic Tennis Tournament provides the perfect opportunity for New York City's junior tennis players to showcase their on-court talents.
