THE DONALD J. DOUGLAS CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY

Donald J. Douglas was the Executive Director of the Public Schools Athletic League from 2004 to 2021. Donald spent more than 35 years working for the New York City Department of Education where he helped countless NYC school children follow their sports dreams and ambitions. Donald was simply someone who made a difference: he expanded the league and introduced new sports such as girls' wrestling, flag football, double dutch, stunt, badminton, rugby and cricket.

Donald, a Philadelphia native, moved to Bushwick, Brooklyn in high school. His favorite basketball team was the Philadelphia 76ers and he was a huge Julius "Dr. J" Erving fan. He was known throughout Bushwick as "Don with the jump shot." He played in a host of basketball tournaments throughout the city such as West 4th, Cromwell, Fila-Thang, and Soul in the Hole. As a starting member and captain of his Bushwick High School basketball team, basketball was always his passion. Donald felt that it was his duty to elevate the game of basketball while creating lifelong memories for the scholar-athletes of the NYC Department of Education. It was his honor and privilege to present the PSAL trophy at center court of the boys and girls basketball championships.

Donald was one of a kind. He was a great man whose laugh filled a room. He was a father, a son, a brother to many of us, and a friend to all. His smile, his laugh, his love of life, and leadership leaves a lasting imprint on the PSAL community. Whether you met Donald for five minutes, saw him once a year, or worked side by side with him, he drew you in with his infectious energy, a jubilant laugh, and a generous heart. His love of the game of basketball is carried on in his honor with the Donald J. Douglas Championship Trophy.
